

MOTAZ

AIDA
REFUGEE CAMP

MARWAN

SHUHADA STREET
HEBRON

NOORAN

BETHLEHEM
CITY CENTER

SHADI

KAFR AQAB
EAST JERUSALEM

UUJME is screening

IMPRISONING A GENERATION

A 50 minute documentary film following the stories of four young Palestinians who have been detained and imprisoned under the Israeli military system.

Their perspectives, along with the voices of their families, combine to form a lens into the entangled structures of oppression that expand well beyond the prison walls.

Join us for food, film and conversation

Sunday, February 3, 2019, Noon - 2 pm

Theodore Parker Church, Corey and Centre Streets, West Roxbury

Sponsored by the Social Action Committee of Theodore Parker Church and Unitarian Universalists for Justice in the Middle East

To view a trailer of the film: www.anemoia.net