

Friday Night Justice Films

THEODORE PARKER CHURCH, 1859 Centre Street, West Roxbury

7:00 pm (Doors open at 6:30)

Free admission, popcorn, and beverages

Appropriate for high school age and older

Friday November 22, 2019

Tell Them We Are Rising: The Story of Black Colleges and Universities

How Black college and universities have educated and provided havens for Black intellectuals, artists, revolutionaries, and leaders in every field.

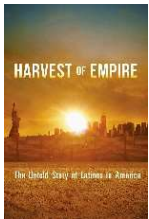

Friday January 24, 2020

Al Helm (The Dream): Martin Luther King in Palestine.

An intense cultural exchange between an American gospel choir and the Palestinian National Theatre that explores their respective struggles for liberation.

Friday February 28, 2020

Harvest of Empire: The Untold Story of Latinos in America.

An unflinching look at the role U.S. economic and military intervention played in triggering an unprecedented wave of Latino migration that is transforming our nation's socio-economic and cultural landscape.

Friday April 3, 2020

Urban Roots: When Everything Collapses, Plant your Field of Dreams

The story of the spontaneous emergence of urban farming in Detroit.

Friday May 1, 2020

Traces of the Trade: A Story from the Deep North

Filmmaker Katrina Browne tells the story of her northern forefathers, the largest slave-trading family in U.S. history.