Back by popular demand!

Some of Berklee College's best talents again will amaze and delight us with their original sound that reflects the instrumentation and vocals of Eastern Europe. Vessela Stoyanova, originally from Bulgaria, has assembled a lively ensemble of first class musicians playing a host of instruments, including electric marimba, violin, bass, and drums.

All aboard for a musical voyage to another part of the world!

Admission $25; $15 for under age 21. Cash preferred, cards okay.
